

For Immediate Release

Bridging The Gap: The Pratt Harlem Project:

Pratt and Harlem artists to show at 2280 FDB

New York, NY: The Pratt Painting Club in conjunction with the Pratt Artist League and RGS Holdings announce: The Pratt Harlem Project.

This encompassing exhibition features works from Pratt students, alumni and Harlem based artists selected at the curatorial discretion of Heather Darci Bhandari and an Elissa Levy. Our mission in developing this collaborative exhibition is to bridge the gap that separates New York's artist communities and develop relationships between student and artist professionals.

Founded this year, The Pratt Painting Club's mission is to foster a supportive artistic community within Pratt, enlivening the creative dialogue between the academic and professional art world.

Visitor Information: The Pratt Harlem Project 2280

Frederick Douglass Blvd. April 14-28th

Opening Reception: Thursday, April 14, 2011 6-9 pm

Hours: Sunday-Thursday 11 to 6pm Friday & Saturday 11 to 9pm

The Pratt Harlem Project

Ryan T. Lammie

(724) 799-7440

thepaintwall@gmail.com

Kikki Ghezzi

(917) 589-7572

kikkighezzi@nyc.rr.com

Nicole Mourino

(305) 484-9300

nicole.mourino@gmail.com

